

- Why can't you travel directly to Russia to visit your family and friends?

- Why are there such harsh sanctions against people, if it is "merely" an "aggression" and "armed conflict"?

- What does this have to do with ordinary Russians?

It seems more like the Russians are the new Jews everyone agrees to hate. I have noted that school teachers in several places in Denmark teach children to hate Russians. And Danish TV is notoriously Russophobes and makes non-stop programs with racist undertones against Russians. I remember, for example, during the World Cup in football in 2018, how two sports journalists took pleasure in saying that you "could not even get a cup of coffee at the airport in Moscow" ... followed by the classic deeply racist "we in Denmark are much better than everyone else" agreed shaking of their heads and "hahaha". Well how was it in reality? Now it was different, quite the opposite in fact. My son and I flew to Moscow for the World Cup in Football in 2018 and had to fly at midnight and thus arrived at Copenhagen Airport at about 21:30 and all shops and restaurants were closed. You literally could not get a cup of coffee in Copenhagen Airport. But with "die unter menchen" in Russia we arrived @3AM at Moscow Sheremetevo Airport on the way to Sochi to see Portugal and Ronaldo against Uruguay. Everything was open, I repeat everything was open, all the clothes shops, all the bars, all the restaurants, and all the cafes, my son and I went straight to the Irish Pub and had a big Irish breakfast. Thus just another example of institutionalized racism on Danish TV against Russians. The bottom line is that ordinary Russians want a peaceful solution just like ordinary Ukrainians.

- With these extremely harsh sanctions against all completely innocent peace-loving people, why are there no sanctions against Western companies? 96% of all Western companies in Russia are still there and there are no sanctions against them. Why not?

- Why don't the western companies that "deal with the enemy" have their bank accounts frozen?

- Do you agree with my analysis that the world's financial center is being moved to China? (Much more on that below).

- Do you agree with my analysis that the Western culture is under attack? The family must be destroyed, religion is bad unless it is satanic, unrestrained immigration of only young men from countries we have just carpet bombed is a good idea, never women, children and elderly men? I wonder why not?

- Do you agree with my analysis that these young men may be used by the military-industrial complex to create chaos at a given time, if, for example, the population gets fed up with the introduction of dictatorship in the form of CBDC (central bank digital currency), 15 min cities, insects as food, forced vaccination and censorship? This is not a criticism of immigrants, who I believe generally behave in an exemplary manner and it is my opinion that they love Denmark. I simply believe that some of the most recent arrivals may be "hand-picked" sleeper agents. Is this something you are aware of?

- Do you agree with my analysis that a Chinese type of surveillance state with a social credit score is being tried to be introduced everywhere in the West with the same health passport that Adolf Hitler introduced in Nazi Germany?

- What is the difference between Denmark, together with the USA and England, attacking Libya "to save the civilian population" and Russia entering Ukraine in an SMO/"aggression"/"armed conflict" to save the Russian-speaking civilian population?

- When are you allowed to interfere in the internal affairs of other countries, and when are you not allowed? I don't quite understand NATO's "rule based" New World Order they are talking about? May you or may you not enter a country "to save the civilian population"?

- If a population group in a country wants independence, then the state can do two things, either crack down hard and handle it as an internal matter or allow a referendum as for example how they did in Slovakia with a 51% majority leaving Czechoslovakia or Crimea with a 97% majority. Which one does Denmark think is the best? Should there always be a heavy crackdown on any demands for independence or should there be the possibility of referenda, as for example we have seen in the Faroe Islands and in Scotland.

- Why did Denmark, together with the USA and England, bomb Libya's water supply with uranium depleted bullets in 2011?

- How do you save the civilian population by flying hundreds of kilometers into the desert and bombing a "Great Man Made River" with uranium depleted bullets?

- How do you save the civilian population from an evil dictator by bombing the factory that made spare parts for The Great Man Made River, which Libya had paid Western companies USD 65 Billion to make? A river that brought the cleanest drinking water from under the desert up to the port cities of Tripoli and Benghazi. A river that was used to irrigate farmland that the population could be allocated for free.

- Where is Libya's 125 tons of gold? Where are Libya's international savings of USD 150 billion? Who has seized those funds?

- Am I right that all wars are only to loot and launder money?

- Or is it also religiously motivated? Motivated by the religion of certain deep state actors, who are not Christian, but worship "the other one". A religion that is about spreading as much human tragedy and degradation as possible? That would explain the motivation, for example, when you think of Dresden, Libya, Iraq and Syria.

- How is it going in Libya today? Did you "spread freedom" and "democracy"? Or open slave markets? Ethnic cleansing of black Africans? Is there a civil war? Was the consequence unrestrained immigration of young men via Libya to Italy and Spain precisely as Gaddafi had warned would happen, if you removed him?

- Why didn't Danish TV Channel DR show the millions of Libyans who demonstrated with green flags in support of Gaddafi?

- Why is there censorship of Russia Today and other Russian media? If we have the moral high ground, we have nothing to hide, right? Presidential candidate Robert F Kennedy says:

"There is no time in world history when the people who introduced censorship were 'the good guys'".

- So why censorship? Why this fear of "Russian disinformation"? Won't the truth always win? Why must the Danish population put up with one-sided information? Do we not have freedom of speech in Denmark?

- I can understand from Lisbeth Quass from DR that "intelligence sources" have ordered a broadcast about "Russian disinformation". You can find the correspondence with her in a previous newsletter, let me know if you can't find it. What will Danish intelligence sources use such a broadcast for? More censorship?

- The information I share with you below cannot be found in Danish mainstream media, why not? We are talking about scientific studies, first-hand witnesses from people who unjustly risk being fired for whistle-blowing, court cases and statistics from public authorities. Why are all these facts that I bring below hidden?

- Where is the line between one-sided information and propaganda?

- Do you think it is ok that Julian Assange is in prison for reporting on American war crimes? (more on these below).

- If someone could get hold of USD 150 billion and 125 tons of gold, would they have a motive to spread certain "news" and claims in the media they own? Would they have a motive to bribe politicians and journalists?

- Is Ukraine a rich country? On minerals? On farmland? On children?

I have many, many more questions for you, but will leave it at that.

Looking forward to your answers.

Below is important information for you.

If, when you have read it more closely, you want to know more, you can hire me as a consultant. I will not accept an offer of permanent employment, unless it is as the department head. Let me know if you can't find my LinkedIn profile and I'll send you a link.

I asked you again, if we are at war, because things change quickly, in 2022 Prime Minister Mette Frederiksen said: "There will be no EU army". This was said in our Parliament the "Folketing", and may have had a decisive influence on Denmark abandoning its exemption from a cooperation on the defense area. Now the EU wants an EU army with 5,000 men (to begin with) and at the same time they want the right of veto to be taken away from individual countries. Denmark could thus be forced to send Danes to war against the will of the Danish people.

I am pleased that on 3 April 2023 we were not at war "anywhere in the world" or "party to the armed conflict between Russia and Ukraine". I sincerely hope Russia sees it that way too. When England announced that they would send uranium depleted bullets to Ukraine, former President Medvedev suggested that a tsunami weapon should be used against England. This weapon sends a 100 meter high tidal wave inland with radio-active material, thus killing everyone in its path.

And there are now open talks of nuclear war from both sides. Then maybe you can understand my concerns regarding what you do. The uranium depleted bullets that England sends will now contaminate Ukraine, with Europe's best agricultural land, into a nuclear-contaminated hell, just like Libya, Serbia, Iraq and many other places where NATO enters into "Special Military Operations", "aggressions" and "armed conflicts" officially to "save the civilian population" and "spread democracy". I will spare you videos of Iraqi children born with birth defects. It's horrible. Trust me. But "unprovoked" aggression, you write. Just watch this short video:

Unprovoked aggression (rumble.com), LINK

If we are to hope for peace, and stop this terrible war with huge loss of young men's lives, then it is necessary to understand what the other party is saying. It should be obvious. But no. Instead, the strictest censorship, not seen since the Second World War, is immediately introduced.
